My summer beauty tips

SUMMER, like winter, requires its own special beauty tips. So to keep you looking at your best, here are my favorite beauty tips for the hot season (if we ever get one)!

For that 'just back from holiday' look: apply a cream pink blusher to the apples of the cheeks and a bronzer where the sun would naturally hit; nose, forehead, cheeks.

To get that dewy finish: Let it shine! Don't over-powder your face, 'dewy' is in and gives a more youthful look. Try blotting paper (from most cosmetic houses) to take away any excessive shine.

Protect Your Other Parts: Who wants to have 60-year-old hands and a 30-year-old face? My advice: When you apply sunscreen, take a couple minutes to apply liberally on your check and neck. Use whatever's leftover on your hands. And use sunscreen a couple times throughout the day.

Go for a bold nail polish: If you are showing your toes this summer, then consider painting your nails a fun, bright color. Bright pinks and corals are especially popular this season and look great on all skin types. It's especially striking against dark skin. When choosing your summer shade, consider your outfit, and co-ordinate, don't clash!
