Q: What do I buy my wife when she already has it all?

A: You have a difficult decision to make especially at Christmas. However if you are really having difficulties, why not splash out on a beautiful Gift Voucher so your loved one can chose for herself?

You then have a choice: you could either credit the voucher with an allocated amount or buy her a specialist treatment that you think she would love to have.

We have had some beautiful ribboned Gift Cards designed for Christmas, I am sure she will feel that you have thought about her gift;

you could always team it up with a bottle of Champagne.

Q: You have mentioned Semi Permanent Makeup in the past. What is it?

A: Semi Permanent Makeup (SPM) is an enhancement applied to the face to look as natural and as real as your makeup. It is a form of gentle, subtle tattooing which lasts approximately 3-5 years.

I use hypo-allergenic medical pigments in all my work, they give a softer look and we have a vast selection of colours to match up to your skin tone and hair colouring. Gone are the days of black painted on eyebrows: I like to give a look, which defines, eyes, lips and brows to enhance rather than dominate the face.

I will post a few testimonials on my website soon, so keep checking it out. If you are thinking about the procedure and are undecided, you can also speak to anyone of my clients for reassurance.
